VICTORIA GOLD PRESENTS KINGS OF THE NORTH - THE SEARCH FOR THE LAST OF THE ICE BEARS

Victoria Gold Presents KINGS OF THE NORTH – The Search for the Last of the Ice Bears will be screened in Dawson City at 7 p.m. on Sunday, August 20 at the Klondike Institute of Art and Culture (KIAC).

Produced by Yukon photographer and environmentalist Peter Mather and directed by Peter Zenkl, with music design by Matthew Lien, this film documents the story of Yukon grizzly bears delaying their hibernation into late winter for one last feast of salmon in temperatures below minus 20C.

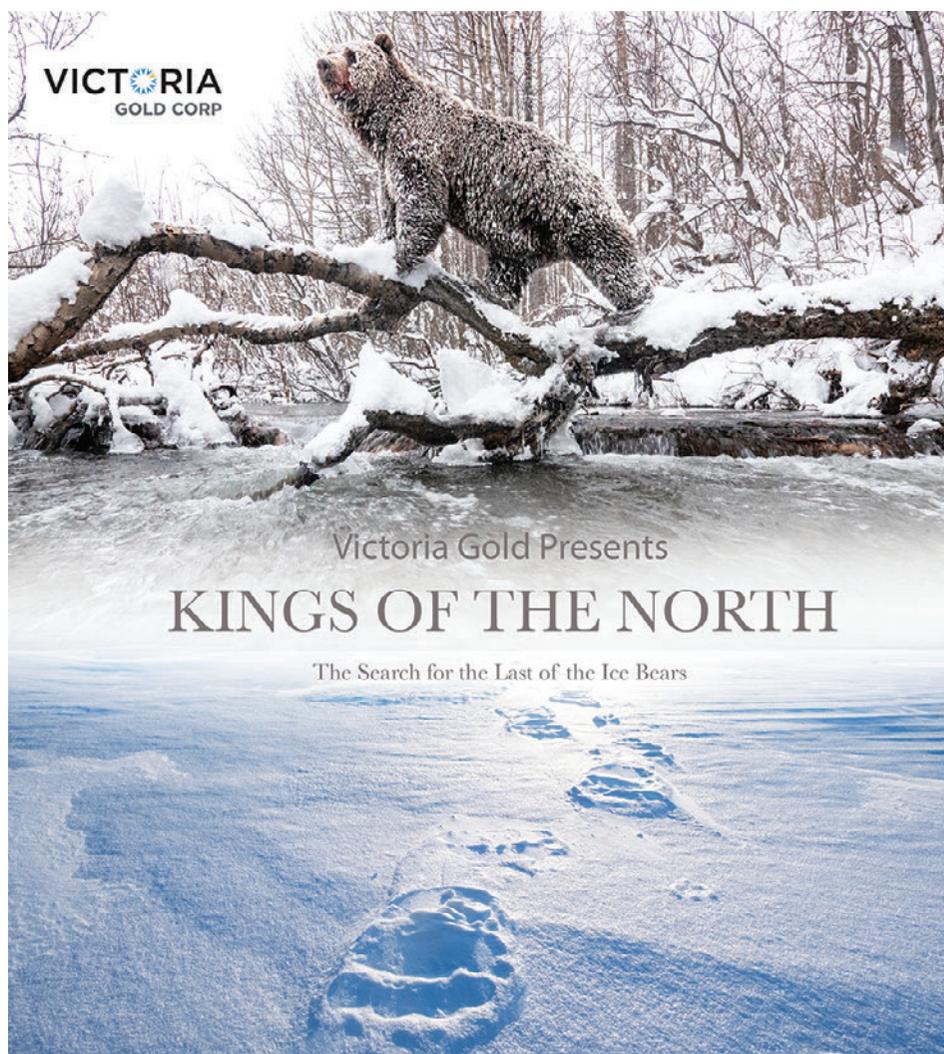

The documentary also focuses on the natural history of salmon, bears and Indigenous peoples of the area.

“This story is one that few people may be aware of so we were very pleased to support Peter to help bring this project forward so that we can all gain a greater understanding of these incredible animals,” says Victoria Gold President & CEO John McConnell.

In April, the film was screened in Whitehorse and Haines Junction. The ticket proceeds from a Vancouver premiere on April 26 at the VIFF Centre benefitted the Victoria Gold Yukon Student Encouragement Society’s Every Student, Every Day initiative to directly support improved student attendance projects in Yukon classrooms and communities.

In addition to Victoria Gold Presents KINGS OF THE NORTH – The Search for the Last of the Ice Bears, the screening will also include CARIBOU, a short film by Gwich’in filmmaker Caleb Charlie and, LIFE ON THE EDGE: The Sheep Story by Dawson City’s own Sonny Parker.

Tickets are $30.00 for adults and $20.00 for students and will be available at the door.
