“The Every Student, Every Day Water Break Photo Contest received so many great photographs, so it was very challenging to select winners,” says Society President Tara Christie. “We so appreciate everyone who shared their favourite activities with us and thank Victoria Gold for donating the water bottles and Air North, Yukon’s Airline and Small’s Expediting Services for delivering them to Yukon students.”

Every Student, Every Day was established in 2012 to help increase student attendance in Yukon schools. Since its creation, the initiative has directly supported over 140 grass-roots, community-developed and led student attendance projects in almost every Yukon community with over $1.2 million.
